

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION FORM:

The Society currently offers two forms of memberships for the following amounts, with the following benefits:

“MIOK” level membership – a once off payment of K200 per year
MIOK membership entitles the holders to a 25% subsidy on expenses incurred in attending Society CME functions, including travel, accommodation and registration. This includes the annual PNG Medical Society Symposium.

OR

“KUMUL” level membership – which can be paid in two ways.

- A once off payment of K1300 for doctors or other health professionals holding a PG qualification, or K1040 for registrars or doctors not holding a PG qualification.
- OR a fortnightly payment of K50 for doctors or other health professionals holding a PG qualification, or K40 for registrars or doctors not holding a PG qualification.
- KUMUL level membership entitles the holder to a 75% subsidy on expense incurred in attending Society CME functions, including travel, accommodation and registration. This includes the annual PNG Medical Society Symposium.

Who can be a member of the Society?
ANYONE with an interest in rural health.

Feel free to contact us at pngruralsociety@gmail.com

